VINTAGE HOLLYWOOD FUNDRAISER TO BENEFIT JUVENILE DIABETES RESEARCH FOUNDATION AT JUNE EVENT IN PACIFIC PALISADES

LOS ANGELES- (May 4, 2010)- The Vintage Hollywood Foundation today announced that it will hold its annual wine and food event on June 12 at the home of Mr. Ray Leonard and Mrs. Bernadette Leonard (boxing champion Sugar Ray Leonard) in Pacific Palisades.

"Vintage Hollywood Foundation's mission is to support charitable organizations that promote the health and well-being of Southern California's diverse community," says the group's president, Arlene Wszalek. "Our board unanimously selected JDRF to be our primary beneficiary this year because of its commitment to not only cure type 1 diabetes, but to keep those living with the disease healthy in the meantime."

Vintage Hollywood is an intimate outdoor event attended by approximately 350 guests, which showcases an exclusive group of prominent restaurants and wineries. Participating restaurants include Culina at the Four Seasons Hotel, Whist at Viceroy Santa Monica, Tavern Restaurant, Joe's, The Foundry on Melrose, Jar, Oyster Gourmet and CRUMBS Bake Shop. 25 wineries including Hitching Post, Joseph Phelps, L'Aventure, Diogenes, Forlorn Hope and Captûre will provide an array of their prestigious vintages for this distinctive event.

Event sponsors include Courteney Cox and David Arquette, and the primary beneficiary will be the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF). Actor/comedian/producer Kevin Pollak will serve as auctioneer for a live auction of unique gourmet and entertainment experiences, and KNX Newsradio afternoon drive host Jim Thornton will be the evening's Emcee.

*Since 2001, Vintage Hollywood has raised over a million dollars to benefit our community. Proceeds from Vintage Hollywood go to the non-profit Vintage Hollywood Foundation, which promotes and supports charitable organizations that work to improve the health and well being of Southern California's diverse community. Previous beneficiaries have included Save the Children, United Friends of the Children, and Children's Action Network. Advisory board members include Mark Beringer - Winemaker, Tracie Fiss - Co-producer, The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, Suzanne Goin - Chef/Owner of AOC, Lucques, Tavern, Cary Tamura, Proprietor, Diogenes Wines, and Suzanne Tracht, Chef/Owner of Jar.
